

morning for Anacoda to join Mr. Cowan.

Mr. Arthur Parsons has gone to Nevada for a short trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dinwoodey have returned from California.

Mrs. Archie P. Bigelow of Ogden is the guest of Mrs. C. D. Moore.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Dale left Wednesday for a trip to California.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Dickinson are at home at 451 South Main street.

Mrs. W. L. Green has gone to southern California for a short time.

Mrs. W. F. Beer and Mrs. Taylor returned Wednesday from Denver.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry S. Heath have returned from a trip to the coast.

Mrs. James A. Miner has returned from a lengthy visit to the coast.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Short are in their new home at 63 Eighth East street.

Miss Eleanor Dooly leaves the latter part of the week for a trip to the coast.

Mrs. Edwin Taggart of Oakland is visiting her sister, Mrs. B. R. Heywood.

Mrs. J. C. McChrystal has come to Santa Cruz, accompanied by her little daughter.

Mrs. Leonard of Denver is in the city visiting her parents, Judge and Mrs. McDowell.

Mr. and Mrs. Irvine are moving into their new home at 289 West Fifth South street.

Mrs. Curtis Knight went to California last Wednesday, where she will spend the summer.

Mrs. May C. J. Parlowe and Mrs. Cora Eldridge sailed last week from San Francisco for Japan.

Mr. George T. Brice has returned from California, accompanied by his little daughter, Winnifred.

Miss Minnie Marks, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Glen Miller, has gone to her home in Kansas.

Mr. R. A. Kees returned from a trip to California. Mrs. Kees will remain on the coast in search of health.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay T. Harris have taken the Sinclair home on Second East street, where they are pleasantly settled.

Bishop Leonard, who has been in Colorado to attend the funeral of the late Bishop Spaulding, returned on Wednesday.

Miss Clarke of Michigan spent a few days in the city as the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Rosmer, and left Wednesday for Chicago.

Social Briefs.

Mr. W. J. Lawrence is back from a trip to the coast.

Miss Ann Cannon has returned from Washington, D. C.

Dr. and Mrs. Whitney gave a pleasant whist evening Thursday.

Mrs. E. F. de Witt will entertain the Sewing club on Tuesday.

Mrs. Julia Taylor entertained the Sewing club on Wednesday.

Captain and Mrs. Stogies gave a dinner at the post last evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Seth W. Morrison left Tuesday morning for Denver.

Mrs. W. Mont Perry entertained informally at luncheon on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gorinski entertained informally Thursday evening.

Mr. R. M. Breeden went to Ogden yesterday for a visit of a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Morrison entertained at cards last Tuesday evening.

Mrs. A. T. Vollmer entertained at an informal afternoon party on Thursday.

Dr. and Mrs. Whitney entertained a few friends at whist on Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Walker are expected home on Tuesday from an eastern trip.

Mrs. Kiehl, mother of Mrs. J. C. E. King, has returned from her trip to the coast.

Misses Irene and Kittle Squires have invitations out for cards Thursday, March 27.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Stephens entertained the Whist club last Monday evening.

Mrs. A. N. Cherry entertained the Third Street Card club on Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. John Darn left on Thursday for a three week trip to New York.

Mrs. Henry C. Hoffman and daughter, Naomi, are spending the winter in Santa Barbara, Cal.

Mrs. Edw. F. Holmes will give another of the series of luncheons on the coming Wednesday.

Mrs. A. B. Richardson entertained the Card club Thursday evening at her home on First street.

Mrs. Burns MacDonald and Mrs. Duke Baxter will leave the last of the month for a trip to the coast.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Welby have returned from a trip of some weeks over the Rio Grande Western.

Mrs. C. S. Burton, Mrs. M. Y. Douglas and Mrs. Beattie will return this morning from Washington.

The music pupils of Professor Anton Pederson will give a recital at his studio on Thursday evening.

Mrs. J. T. Bess entertained the ladies' auxiliary of the B. of L. E. at her home on Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Shepard Benson entertained at a pleasant luncheon on Friday afternoon at her home on F street.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Margetts, who have been spending the winter in Los Angeles, are expected home shortly.

Mrs. A. T. Vollmer gave a delightful party on Friday afternoon on Thursday afternoon to about a dozen of her friends.

Mrs. G. W. Snow and daughter, who have been spending the winter in California, are expected home during the week.

The young people of the Unitarian church gave an enjoyable social at the home of the Misses Snyder on Friday evening.

Dr. Kiehl of Minneapolis, the brother of Mrs. J. C. E. King, will be here early in the week to visit his mother and sister.

The members of battery A, light artillery, N. G. U., will give a military hop at Christensen's hall on the first of next month.

The Rev. P. W. Pinkerton and family were tendered a pleasant reception by the members of the Christian church on Friday evening.

Miss Euphemia Jacobson will give a birthday party at her home on Thursday evening, March 27. An enjoyable time is anticipated.

The ladies of the First Congregational church will give a cake sale at Walker's store next Saturday, beginning at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

The Opal club will hold its next regular social at the Literary club rooms next Thursday evening. A very enjoyable program has been prepared.

The ladies of the Jewish Relief society will give a Purim ball tomorrow evening in the Ladies' Literary club house for the benefit of the society.

The bachelor officers at Fort Douglas gave another delightful hop at the hall last Wednesday evening, at which informality and merriment reigned supreme.

The ladies of Unity circle met at the home of Mrs. Charles Watson Wednesday afternoon and listened to a paper on "Jacob Rits" by Mrs. S. C. Hicks.

Miss Zulu Houtz and Master Elmo of Provo, and Master and Master Paul King will leave this morning for Tooele, where they will spend the coming week with Mrs. Dunyon.

The Misogynists club held an interesting meeting on Monday night. A good program was rendered, followed by whist. Arrangements were made to give a dance at the Ladies' Literary club on April 11.

The Christensen soiree was well attended last Wednesday evening. Quite a number of parties were made up and attended. A number of parties have been arranged to attend next Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. G. gave a bowling party at the Brunswick alley to a party of friends. The party had the exclusive use of the hall from 8 to 11 p. m. The time was one of merriment from beginning to end. The highest score of the evening was made by Mr. W. R. Reinhardt, who bowled 138 in his last game. The prize for the lowest score went to Miss Louise Maddison, whose score in the second game was 38. After the games the party adjourned to the Tavern where a dainty supper was served. Those present were Messrs. W. R. Reinhardt, H. C. G. Ollie McAllister and James Edwards, the Misses Kathryn and Louise Maddison, Miss McCoy and Miss Adams.

The Combination club held their weekly meeting on Tuesday at the residence of Mr. William Taylor, president of the club. The room was very nicely decorated with flowers of various hues. Songs, dances and recitations were indulged in, after which the company sat down to a feast fit for a king. The features of the evening were some very amusing feats performed by Mr. G. H. Smith. They consisted of tricks of legerdemain, which were greatly enjoyed. The members present were Messames G. H. Smith, O. J. Yost, R. Christensen, W. J. Odell, Misses M. Searle, M. Christensen, Messrs. William Taylor, D. Searle, H. Odell, R. Christensen, G. H. Smith, W. N. Purdie.

On Monday night Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bowring entertained a number of friends. The evening was mainly spent in dancing, music being furnished by a string orchestra. Several social numbers were rendered, including a medley of Irish melodies by Miss Murray. The decoration idea was carried out in green. Refreshments were served. Present were Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Wilkinson, Mr. and Mrs. Black, Mrs. Dempsey, Misses Maude Irvine, Lillian Neville, Nellie Bowring, Lueline, and Messrs. Robert Wilkinson, Roy Bowring, Crosby of Evanston, Walter Bowring, Paul Wilkinson, Mercur, Roy Adamson, Archie Sheppard, Tom Young, Al Kneass, Joe Wilkinson, Tom Irvine, Lon Johnson, Jack Wilkinson and Rufus Johnson.

The "Philo Kurlan society" met at E. T. Ashton's last Friday, March 21, to effect an organization. The officers were: President, M. C. Ashton; vice president, Rebecca W. Jones; secretary, Florence Ashton; treasurer, Samuel Schenck; executive committee, David P. Howells, Julia Byer, James E. Gill, Edna A. Jones, Joseph E. Jones, Ashton, Mabel Stanner, Ella Chechire, Mattie Howells, Florence Foreman, Cora Ashton, Clara Foulger, Rebecca Astorson, Mattie Ashton, Lucile Evans, Julia Byer, Kate Shill, Etta Hodges, Birdie Jones, Bertha Richmond, Ethel Hawley, Edith Hawley, Messrs. Earl Mossberg, Oliver R. Merckins, Joseph E. Kjar, Abbot Bond, Alfred Balding, Fred Balding, Samuel Backman, Carl Backman, Ernest Jones, Joseph Schoenhaus, Emil Smoot, Morris O. Ashton, James Price, John Christensen, and all present were very pleasant evening was spent, after which refreshments were served.

OGDEN.

Monday evening, in the spacious hall of the Sacred Heart academy, the students of that institution, under the able direction of the sisters, put on a play entitled, "Isabella of Castile," or the True Heroine. The play was given with the period of Columbus time and illustrated various episodes of the life of Queen Isabella, the pledging of her jewels to aid Columbus and the conquering of the Moors. The display of Oriental and Moorish scenes afforded fine scope for the decorator's art, and some handsome stage settings were the result, while each of the half-hundred young ladies taking a place on the programme performed her part with an excellence produced only by weeks of patient study and practice. All in all, it was one of the finest bits of dramatic art ever given in Ogden. The interludes were given by musical numbers, both instrumental and vocal, by various soloists and musical organizations of the school.

At the Congregational church Friday evening there was given a "cut-off" social that proved a most enjoyable one from every point of view. The girls were warned to bring knives, and these were used in cutting out the ones making the best articles getting prizes.

An old-time party was given Thursday evening in the First ward. Some costumes decidedly unique and appropriate were exhibited and a thoroughly enjoyable evening spent.

The High school gave another very pleasant party Friday evening.

The last of the present series of parties will be given Friday next in the Second ward amusement hall.

Mrs. W. A. McGraw is the guest of Mrs. J. La Voy at Winnemucca, Nev.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Flint are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Standley of Pocatello, Ida.

Mrs. Robert Burdette left Wednesday for Cheyenne on a visit.

Mrs. T. Fitzgerald departed Tuesday for San Francisco on a visit.

J. W. N. Whitecotton and wife of Provo are visiting in Ogden.

Mrs. G. E. Maule has returned from Oakland, Cal.

Miss Matie West of Lima, Mont., is visiting friends and relatives.

Mrs. A. B. Vance, accompanied by her son, Isaac, and daughter, departed Thursday for the east on a visit.

Mrs. A. P. Bigelow was the guest of Mrs. C. D. Moore of Salt Lake last week.

A large crowd attended the dance given by the Second ward amusement committee Friday evening.

Mrs. Charlotte Todd of Salt Lake is the guest of Mrs. G. W. Larkin, Jr.

A. B. Hayes returned Wednesday from Washington, after stopping for a short time to visit old friends in Ohio.

The mother general of the Sacred Heart order, Mrs. Charles W. Corfield of Mercur, Carnations and violets were used for decorations, delicious refreshments were served. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Cliffon. Those invited to enjoy the occasion were Messames Farnsworth, Duke, Kimball, Vincent, Keate, Price, McAllister, May, Dresser, Hemingway, Tuckett, Hillen, Latay, Epperson, Corbett, Schell, Coates, Quinn, Johnson and Clifton.

Ralph Cammille was given a very pleasant surprise party at his home Saturday evening. The evening was spent in games and music, and all present pronounced the party a most enjoyable affair. Prizes were awarded to Miss Cora Gilson, Arthur Parsons and Miss Cammille in the Russian contests. Those present were Cora Gilson, Eva Gilson, Fay Easton, Lila Robinson, Florence Robinson, John Robinson, Arthur Parsons, Margaret Parsons, Elsie Parsons, Marie Lynch, Edna Cammille, Dan Cammille, Mertan Cammille, Bert Williams, Forbes Dore, Irene Dore, Ralph Olsen.

Friday evening Mr. H. C. G. gave a bowling party at the Brunswick alley to a party of friends. The party had the exclusive use of the hall from 8 to 11 p. m. The time was one of merriment from beginning to end. The highest score of the evening was made by Mr. W. R. Reinhardt, who bowled 138 in his last game. The prize for the lowest score went to Miss Louise Maddison, whose score in the second game was 38. After the games the party adjourned to the Tavern where a dainty supper was served. Those present were Messrs. W. R. Reinhardt, H. C. G. Ollie McAllister and James Edwards, the Misses Kathryn and Louise Maddison, Miss McCoy and Miss Adams.

The Combination club held their weekly meeting on Tuesday at the residence of Mr. William Taylor, president of the club. The room was very nicely decorated with flowers of various hues. Songs, dances and recitations were indulged in, after which the company sat down to a feast fit for a king. The features of the evening were some very amusing feats performed by Mr. G. H. Smith. They consisted of tricks of legerdemain, which were greatly enjoyed. The members present were Messames G. H. Smith, O. J. Yost, R. Christensen, W. J. Odell, Misses M. Searle, M. Christensen, Messrs. William Taylor, D. Searle, H. Odell, R. Christensen, G. H. Smith, W. N. Purdie.

On Monday night Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bowring entertained a number of friends. The evening was mainly spent in dancing, music being furnished by a string orchestra. Several social numbers were rendered, including a medley of Irish melodies by Miss Murray. The decoration idea was carried out in green. Refreshments were served. Present were Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Wilkinson, Mr. and Mrs. Black, Mrs. Dempsey, Misses Maude Irvine, Lillian Neville, Nellie Bowring, Lueline, and Messrs. Robert Wilkinson, Roy Bowring, Crosby of Evanston, Walter Bowring, Paul Wilkinson, Mercur, Roy Adamson, Archie Sheppard, Tom Young, Al Kneass, Joe Wilkinson, Tom Irvine, Lon Johnson, Jack Wilkinson and Rufus Johnson.

The "Philo Kurlan society" met at E. T. Ashton's last Friday, March 21, to effect an organization. The officers were: President, M. C. Ashton; vice president, Rebecca W. Jones; secretary, Florence Ashton; treasurer, Samuel Schenck; executive committee, David P. Howells, Julia Byer, James E. Gill, Edna A. Jones, Joseph E. Jones, Ashton, Mabel Stanner, Ella Chechire, Mattie Howells, Florence Foreman, Cora Ashton, Clara Foulger, Rebecca Astorson, Mattie Ashton, Lucile Evans, Julia Byer, Kate Shill, Etta Hodges, Birdie Jones, Bertha Richmond, Ethel Hawley, Edith Hawley, Messrs. Earl Mossberg, Oliver R. Merckins, Joseph E. Kjar, Abbot Bond, Alfred Balding, Fred Balding, Samuel Backman, Carl Backman, Ernest Jones, Joseph Schoenhaus, Emil Smoot, Morris O. Ashton, James Price, John Christensen, and all present were very pleasant evening was spent, after which refreshments were served.

OGDEN.

Monday evening, in the spacious hall of the Sacred Heart academy, the students of that institution, under the able direction of the sisters, put on a play entitled, "Isabella of Castile," or the True Heroine. The play was given with the period of Columbus time and illustrated various episodes of the life of Queen Isabella, the pledging of her jewels to aid Columbus and the conquering of the Moors. The display of Oriental and Moorish scenes afforded fine scope for the decorator's art, and some handsome stage settings were the result, while each of the half-hundred young ladies taking a place on the programme performed her part with an excellence produced only by weeks of patient study and practice. All in all, it was one of the finest bits of dramatic art ever given in Ogden. The interludes were given by musical numbers, both instrumental and vocal, by various soloists and musical organizations of the school.

At the Congregational church Friday evening there was given a "cut-off" social that proved a most enjoyable one from every point of view. The girls were warned to bring knives, and these were used in cutting out the ones making the best articles getting prizes.

An old-time party was given Thursday evening in the First ward. Some costumes decidedly unique and appropriate were exhibited and a thoroughly enjoyable evening spent.

The High school gave another very pleasant party Friday evening.

The last of the present series of parties will be given Friday next in the Second ward amusement hall.

Mrs. W. A. McGraw is the guest of Mrs. J. La Voy at Winnemucca, Nev.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Flint are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Standley of Pocatello, Ida.

Mrs. Robert Burdette left Wednesday for Cheyenne on a visit.

Mrs. T. Fitzgerald departed Tuesday for San Francisco on a visit.

J. W. N. Whitecotton and wife of Provo are visiting in Ogden.

Mrs. G. E. Maule has returned from Oakland, Cal.

Miss Matie West of Lima, Mont., is visiting friends and relatives.

Mrs. A. B. Vance, accompanied by her son, Isaac, and daughter, departed Thursday for the east on a visit.

Mrs. A. P. Bigelow was the guest of Mrs. C. D. Moore of Salt Lake last week.

A large crowd attended the dance given by the Second ward amusement committee Friday evening.

Mrs. Charlotte Todd of Salt Lake is the guest of Mrs. G. W. Larkin, Jr.

A. B. Hayes returned Wednesday from Washington, after stopping for a short time to visit old friends in Ohio.

The mother general of the Sacred Heart order, Mrs. Charles W. Corfield of Mercur, Carnations and violets were used for decorations, delicious refreshments were served. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Cliffon. Those invited to enjoy the occasion were Messames Farnsworth, Duke, Kimball, Vincent, Keate, Price, McAllister, May, Dresser, Hemingway, Tuckett, Hillen, Latay, Epperson, Corbett, Schell, Coates, Quinn, Johnson and Clifton.

Ralph Cammille was given a very pleasant surprise party at his home Saturday evening. The evening was spent in games and music, and all present pronounced the party a most enjoyable affair. Prizes were awarded to Miss Cora Gilson, Arthur Parsons and Miss Cammille in the Russian contests. Those present were Cora Gilson, Eva Gilson, Fay Easton, Lila Robinson, Florence Robinson, John Robinson, Arthur Parsons, Margaret Parsons, Elsie Parsons, Marie Lynch, Edna Cammille, Dan Cammille, Mertan Cammille, Bert Williams, Forbes Dore, Irene Dore, Ralph Olsen.

Friday evening Mr. H. C. G. gave a bowling party at the Brunswick alley to a party of friends. The party had the exclusive use of the hall from 8 to 11 p. m. The time was one of merriment from beginning to end. The highest score of the evening was made by Mr. W. R. Reinhardt, who bowled 138 in his last game. The prize for the lowest score went to Miss Louise Maddison, whose score in the second game was 38. After the games the party adjourned to the Tavern where a dainty supper was served. Those present were Messrs. W. R. Reinhardt, H. C. G. Ollie McAllister and James Edwards, the Misses Kathryn and Louise Maddison, Miss McCoy and Miss Adams.

The Combination club held their weekly meeting on Tuesday at the residence of Mr. William Taylor, president of the club. The room was very nicely decorated with flowers of various hues. Songs, dances and recitations were indulged in, after which the company sat down to a feast fit for a king. The features of the evening were some very amusing feats performed by Mr. G. H. Smith. They consisted of tricks of legerdemain, which were greatly enjoyed. The members present were Messames G. H. Smith, O. J. Yost, R. Christensen, W. J. Odell, Misses M. Searle, M. Christensen, Messrs. William Taylor, D. Searle, H. Odell, R. Christensen, G. H. Smith, W. N. Purdie.

On Monday night Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bowring entertained a number of friends. The evening was mainly spent in dancing, music being furnished by a string orchestra. Several social numbers were rendered, including a medley of Irish melodies by Miss Murray. The decoration idea was carried out in green. Refreshments were served. Present were Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Wilkinson, Mr. and Mrs. Black, Mrs. Dempsey, Misses Maude Irvine, Lillian Neville, Nellie Bowring, Lueline, and Messrs. Robert Wilkinson, Roy Bowring, Crosby of Evanston, Walter Bowring, Paul Wilkinson, Mercur, Roy Adamson, Archie Sheppard, Tom Young, Al Kneass, Joe Wilkinson, Tom Irvine, Lon Johnson, Jack Wilkinson and Rufus Johnson.

The "Philo Kurlan society" met at E. T. Ashton's last Friday, March 21, to effect an organization. The officers were: President, M. C. Ashton; vice president, Rebecca W. Jones; secretary, Florence Ashton; treasurer, Samuel Schenck; executive committee, David P. Howells, Julia Byer, James E. Gill, Edna A. Jones, Joseph E. Jones, Ashton, Mabel Stanner, Ella Chechire, Mattie Howells, Florence Foreman, Cora Ashton, Clara Foulger, Rebecca Astorson, Mattie Ashton, Lucile Evans, Julia Byer, Kate Shill, Etta Hodges, Birdie Jones, Bertha Richmond, Ethel Hawley, Edith Hawley, Messrs. Earl Mossberg, Oliver R. Merckins, Joseph E. Kjar, Abbot Bond, Alfred Balding, Fred Balding, Samuel Backman, Carl Backman, Ernest Jones, Joseph Schoenhaus, Emil Smoot, Morris O. Ashton, James Price, John Christensen, and all present were very pleasant evening was spent, after which refreshments were served.

OGDEN.

Monday evening, in the spacious hall of the Sacred Heart academy, the students of that institution, under the able direction of the sisters, put on a play entitled, "Isabella of Castile," or the True Heroine. The play was given with the period of Columbus time and illustrated various episodes of the life of Queen Isabella, the pledging of her jewels to aid Columbus and the conquering of the Moors. The display of Oriental and Moorish scenes afforded fine scope for the decorator's art, and some handsome stage settings were the result, while each of the half-hundred young ladies taking a place on the programme performed her part with an excellence produced only by weeks of patient study and practice. All in all, it was one of the finest bits of dramatic art ever given in Ogden. The interludes were given by musical numbers, both instrumental and vocal, by various soloists and musical organizations of the school.

At the Congregational church Friday evening there was given a "cut-off" social that proved a most enjoyable one from every point of view. The girls were warned to bring knives, and these were used in cutting out the ones making the best articles getting prizes.

An old-time party was given Thursday evening in the First ward. Some costumes decidedly unique and appropriate were exhibited and a thoroughly enjoyable evening spent.

The High school gave another very pleasant party Friday evening.

The last of the present series of parties will be given Friday next in the Second ward amusement hall.

Mrs. W. A. McGraw is the guest of Mrs. J. La Voy at Winnemucca, Nev.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Flint are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Standley of Pocatello, Ida.

Mrs. Robert Burdette left Wednesday for Cheyenne on a visit.

Mrs. T. Fitzgerald departed Tuesday for San Francisco on a visit.

J. W. N. Whitecotton and wife of Provo are visiting in Ogden.

Mrs. G. E. Maule has returned from Oakland, Cal.

Miss Matie West of Lima, Mont., is visiting friends and relatives.

Mrs. A. B. Vance, accompanied by her son, Isaac, and daughter, departed Thursday for the east on a visit.

Mrs. A. P. Bigelow was the guest of Mrs. C. D. Moore of Salt Lake last week.

A large crowd attended the dance given by the Second ward amusement committee Friday evening.

Mrs. Charlotte Todd of Salt Lake is the guest of Mrs. G. W. Larkin, Jr.

A. B. Hayes returned Wednesday from Washington, after stopping for a short time to visit old friends in Ohio.

The mother general of the Sacred Heart order, Mrs. Charles W. Corfield of Mercur, Carnations and violets were used for decorations, delicious refreshments were served. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Cliffon. Those invited to enjoy the occasion were Messames Farnsworth, Duke, Kimball, Vincent, Keate, Price, McAllister, May, Dresser, Hemingway, Tuckett, Hillen, Latay, Epperson, Corbett, Schell, Coates, Quinn, Johnson and Clifton.

Ralph Cammille was given a very pleasant surprise party at his home Saturday evening. The evening was spent in games and music, and all present pronounced the party a most enjoyable affair. Prizes were awarded to Miss Cora Gilson, Arthur Parsons and Miss Cammille in the Russian contests. Those present were Cora Gilson, Eva Gilson, Fay Easton, Lila Robinson, Florence Robinson, John Robinson, Arthur Parsons, Margaret Parsons, Elsie Parsons, Marie Lynch, Edna Cammille, Dan Cammille, Mertan Cammille, Bert Williams, Forbes Dore, Irene Dore, Ralph Olsen.

Friday evening Mr. H. C. G. gave a bowling party at the Brunswick alley to a party of friends. The party had the exclusive use of the hall from 8 to 11 p. m. The time was one of merriment from beginning to end. The highest score of the evening was made by Mr. W. R. Reinhardt, who bowled 138 in his last game. The prize for the lowest score went to Miss Louise Maddison, whose score in the second game was 38. After the games the party adjourned to the Tavern where a dainty supper was served. Those present were Messrs. W. R. Reinhardt, H. C. G. Ollie McAllister and James Edwards, the Misses Kathryn and Louise Maddison, Miss McCoy and Miss Adams.

The Combination club held their weekly meeting on Tuesday at the residence of Mr. William Taylor, president of the club. The room was very nicely decorated with flowers of various hues. Songs, dances and recitations were indulged in, after which the company sat down to a feast fit for a king. The features of the evening were some very amusing feats performed by Mr. G. H. Smith. They consisted of tricks of legerdemain, which were greatly enjoyed. The members present were Messames G. H. Smith, O. J. Yost, R. Christensen, W. J. Odell, Misses M. Searle, M. Christensen, Messrs. William Taylor, D. Searle, H. Odell, R. Christensen, G. H. Smith, W. N. Purdie.

On Monday night Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bowring entertained a number of friends. The evening was mainly spent in dancing, music being furnished by a string orchestra. Several social numbers were rendered, including a medley of Irish melodies by Miss Murray. The decoration idea was carried out in green. Refreshments were served. Present were Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Wilkinson, Mr. and Mrs. Black, Mrs. Dempsey, Misses Maude Irvine, Lillian Neville, Nellie Bowring, Lueline, and Messrs. Robert Wilkinson, Roy Bowring, Crosby of Evanston, Walter Bowring, Paul Wilkinson, Mercur, Roy Adamson, Archie Sheppard, Tom Young, Al Kneass, Joe Wilkinson, Tom Irvine, Lon Johnson, Jack Wilkinson and Rufus Johnson.

The "Philo Kurlan society" met at E. T. Ashton's last Friday, March 21, to effect an organization. The officers were: President, M. C. Ashton; vice president, Rebecca W. Jones; secretary, Florence Ashton; treasurer, Samuel Schenck; executive committee, David P. Howells, Julia Byer, James E. Gill, Edna A. Jones, Joseph E. Jones, Ashton, Mabel Stanner, Ella Chechire, Mattie Howells, Florence Foreman, Cora Ashton, Clara Foulger, Rebecca Astorson, Mattie Ashton, Lucile Evans, Julia Byer, Kate Shill, Etta Hodges, Birdie Jones, Bertha Richmond, Ethel Hawley, Edith Hawley, Messrs. Earl Mossberg, Oliver R. Merckins, Joseph E. Kjar, Abbot Bond, Alfred Balding, Fred Balding, Samuel Backman, Carl Backman, Ernest Jones, Joseph Schoenhaus, Emil Smoot, Morris O. Ashton, James Price, John Christensen, and all present were very pleasant evening was spent, after which refreshments were served.

OGDEN.

Monday evening, in the spacious hall of the Sacred Heart academy, the students of that institution, under the able direction of the sisters, put on a play entitled, "Isabella of Castile," or the True Heroine. The play was given with the period of Columbus time and illustrated various episodes of the life of Queen Isabella, the pledging